GENERAL RECOMMENDATION FORM

Deadlines:

April 5 for high school students applying during the Early Response Process

May 3 for high school and college students applying during the regular application cycle

Thank you for helping this student apply to the Phillips Scholarship, which offers renewable, 4-year college scholarships to students with financial need who display academic achievement, a commitment to serving others, a strong work ethic, leadership qualities, and exhibit grit when faced with hardship.

This form is for an adult who knows the student well (but not a relative), such as a teacher, community service advisor, religious leader, coach or employer. We are particularly interested in a student's concern for others and, if applicable, any special circumstances or challenges the student has met. You may answer the questions below and/or address these questions in a letter of recommendation. If you choose to write a letter, please include these topics, and/or comment briefly in the spaces provided below on the form. This form and/or your letter can be emailed to staff@spscholars.org, faxed to 978-744-0456 or mailed to the Scholarship Office.

The student has waived his/her right to see all information submitted by Recommenders. If you have any comments or concerns about providing this student with a recommendation, please call the Scholarship Office at 978-744-2111.
