Your Estimated Federal Student Aid

Federal Pell Grant

A Federal Pell Grant is awarded to undergraduate students who have financial need and who have not earned a degree or are in a teacher certification program. Federal Pell Grants don't need to be repaid.

Up to $4,160

Federal Direct Loans

A federal direct loan is money lent to you by the government that you must repay with interest.

Up to $5,500

Federal Work-Study

Federal Work-Study is a way for students to earn money to pay for school through part-time jobs on or off campus.

You May Be Eligible

Amounts shown here are only estimates of federal student aid based on full-time enrollment and the average cost of attendance. Your school will determine how much student aid to offer you, which may include additional aid from your school or state.

Keep in mind, this is only an estimate

Always refer to your school's financial aid offer for a final determination of financial aid available.

Your Student Aid Index (SAI)

Your SAI is an index number used by your school to determine your federal student aid eligibility and to build your financial aid offer. Your SAI may change if you update or correct your FAFSA information or after verification (if your FAFSA form was selected for review).

Next Steps

1 Correct any errors on your FAFSA® form

Review your FAFSA form responses carefully and make sure all the information you provided is correct. To correct errors or add additional schools, you'll need to submit a FAFSA correction.

If you need to report significant changes in your family or financial situation, contact your college's or career school's financial aid office.

- If you need additional help with your FAFSA Submission Summary, contact your college's or career school's financial aid office or select "Visit Help Center" from the FAFSA home page. If your contact information changes, update your information in your Account Settings. Then, select "Make Corrections" to update the information on your FAFSA form.

2 Make sure your schools have everything they need

The financial aid staff at your school may contact you to resolve any issues related to information reported on your FAFSA form.

You can also reach out directly to your school and find out if any additional documentation is required.

3 Look out for aid-related communications from your schools

Once the schools you applied to have processed your FAFSA form, they will send you financial aid offers. These aid offers tell you what aid you can receive at a particular college or career school.

Keep in mind that you don't have to accept all the student aid that is offered, and that your schools may offer amounts that differ from your federal student aid estimates.

For Your Awareness

- VA Education and Training Benefits help veterans, service members, and their family members with needs like paying college tuition or finding the right school.
- The limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive is the equivalent of six school years. Once you've reached that limit, you can no longer receive a Federal Pell Grant.
- Based on the information we have on record for you, your Student Aid Index (SAI) is 3137. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your college's or career school's financial aid office will use your SAI to determine your eligibility for other types of grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans.
- Based on information you provided on your FAFSA form, you may be eligible for other federal benefits not awarded by the U.S. Department of Education. Visit StudentAid.gov/help/means-tested-benefits for more information on federal benefits.

Understand Your Tax Benefits

Did you know that the IRS provides tax benefits for education? These tax benefits can be used to get back some of the money you spend on tuition or loan interest, or to maximize your college savings.
